

Miami Art Museum

Families

Miami Art Museum

101 West Flagler Street, Miami, FL 33130

Learn about art and discover new ways of seeing together. MAM offers an array of fun programs and activities for families at the museum throughout the year.

Second Saturdays are Free For Families Every Second Saturday from 1 – 4pm.

This free monthly program for drop-in visitors features fun hands-on activities for children and adults. Second Saturdays also regularly include live music, storytelling, guided tours, gallery games, and dance performances. This is a fun-filled day for children and adults to explore the museum, learn something new, create art, and enjoy time together.

Visitors Gallery

Designed for visitors of all ages, these interactive spaces in our Plaza Level and Upper Level galleries feature reading materials, videos, writing stations, and hands-on activities intended to enhance the understanding and enjoyment of MAM's collection and exhibitions. Free with museum admission for adults, free museum admission for students.

Miami Art Museum's education programs for children ages 5 to 18 years of age are supported in part, by MAM's Annual Education Fund.

Miami Art Museum's Second Saturdays are Free for Families program is presented by MetLife Foundation.

Second Saturdays are Free for Families 1-4 pm

August 8, 2009 - Different Drums

Visual rhythms and the beats of many cultures echo in the upstairs galleries. Design and decorate a distinctive drum. (Exhibition: NeoHooDoo: Art for a Forgotten Faith)

Interactive musical performance with The Backyard Movement!

September 12, 2009 - Animals and Ancestors

Inspired by Brian Jungen's unique totem pole artwork, transform a plain totem by honoring your favorite animals and/or ancestors. (Exhibition: NeoHooDoo: Art for a Forgotten Faith)

Please see our Web sites for further details: www.miamiartmuseum.org www.theparentacademy.net

