

Enjoy the Great Outdoors

Tour Crandon Park, Paddle a Canoe, Picnic by the Bay, and discover the treasures found in Miami-Dade's parks and recreation system:

<http://www.miamidade.gov/parks/>

Build a tree house, create a weather station, collect rocks, plant a garden, and use your imagination to create your family's own nature experiences. 2008 Audubon Medal Winner, Richard Louv has put together a resource guide teeming with ideas on how families may enjoy the wonder of nature together:

<http://richardlouv.com/children-nature-resources>

The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service Website "Let's Go Outside" searches nature refuges across the U.S. by zip code (Find Nature Nearby), lists events across the country, and has special sections for Kids!, Parents, Educators:

<http://www.fws.gov/letsgooutside/>

Fun Family Outdoor Activities are listed in: "90 Low Cost or No Cost Activities to Entertain Your Kids All Summer Long"

<http://inevergrewup.net/schools-out-what-to-do-with-the-kids-check-out-this-article/>

The Children and Nature Network offers their "Nature Clubs for Families Tool Kit"

http://www.childrenandnature.org/downloads/NCFE_toolkit.pdf